CHW Installs 25th National President

Toronto, ON- Canadian Hadassah-WIZO (CHW) is delighted to announce that Elayna Latsky, of Toronto, Ontario, has been installed as CHW's 25th National President. The installation took place at CHW's Annual General Meeting on October 25, 2020.

Born and raised in Montreal, Quebec, Elayna obtained her Bachelor of Commerce from Concordia University and her Graduate Diploma in Public Accountancy from McGill University. Over the course of her professional career, Elayna worked in public accounting in Montreal, until she moved to Toronto in 1993, and held various accounting roles in private industry.

As she assumes the position of National President, Elayna brings with her volunteer experience from a number of boards and not-for-profit organizations.

A member and leader within CHW for 22 years, one of Elayna's goals during the course of her two year term, is to rebuild and recover from these extraordinary and uncertain times. "Life has changed for all of us here in Canada, and, of course, in Israel, which is under a second lockdown at the moment. Our Jewish Homeland will need us now more than ever," said Elayna.

Founded in 1917, Canadian Hadassah-WIZO (CHW) is a non-political, volunteer led, philanthropic organization, with Centres in over 20 locations across Canada. CHW's National Board of Directors embodies visionary leadership from coast to coast. CHW passionately supports programs and services for Children, Healthcare, and Women in Israel and Canada.
